

Psalm 23 (paraphrase)

"He is my protector and my provider. He gives me security and soothes my nerves after a rough day. He rejuvenates me and encourages me when I need it and He points me in the right direction with wonderful Godly advice. Although I fear the future or my own failure at times I don't need to. He is always by my side to get me through what lies ahead.

*He comforts me and puts me at ease when I face tension or opposition. He makes me feel special. He assures me of my purpose in life and His love for me is all I will ever need and I am confident that I will experience happiness and joy for the rest of my life because He and I will be together forever.
